

New World, New Opportunities, New Church

Matthew 9:38 Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field."

Discussion Questions:

Do you think it is "good day" for the church?

What is going well in your church and ministry? What is not?

What are some generational differences in the church today? Is there any way these differences can be used to our advantage?

What is on God's Mind as He thinks about His Church in the 2010?

How do you intentionally identify with the audience while you preach?

Do you consider yourself a Missiologist? Who are you not "in touch" with?

How do you serve as a mentor?

What opportunities do you have as disciple maker?

Do you follow God's leading day in and day out?

Prayer:
